CHRISTIAN EDUCATION ---

A Key To Christian Living

DEDICATION

We humbly dedicate the "Ariel 1950" to his Holiness Pope Pius xii, who, as the lawful successor of St. Peter, received from Christ the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. During the Holy Year 1950 His Holiness calls all mankind back to Christianity through the intentions of this Holy Year: "Sanctification Through Penance and Prayer: Unshakable Fidelity to Christ: Realization of Social Justice: Assistance to the Needy."

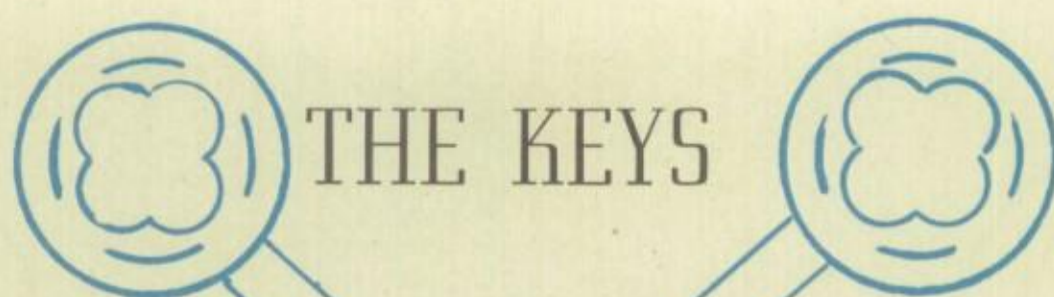

"And I will give to thee the KEYS of the Kingdom of Heaven." — Matthew 16:19

VETE RYNIER.

FOREWORD

Religion more than any other vital influence has power to bring man back to Christianity. Religion creates virtue, inspires conduct, and builds character; it builds a mentality that seeks to live with Christ and in Christ because it recognizes Him as the chief inspiration to righteousness and heroism. Religion is the key to Christianity as expressed in Christ's words, "Be ye perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect."

THE KEYS

Sacraments are the Keys which open the door of Christian life to each individual. They are the means whereby we are sanctified. In Baptism we become Christians, children in God's family. Confirmation introduces the child of God to the adult duties and responsibilities of the Christian family. Holy Eucharist is the nourishment that gives us the vitality to fulfill our duties in the Christian family.

The dignified ladies of the junior class entertain the student body "a la Spike Jones" during the Junior Follies.

JUNIORS

Third row: Patsy Jo Heim, Ruth Ann Murray, Joan Hardman, Claire Swan, Jean Hardman.

Sophomores relax now and then to recreate themselves. Sophomore schedule is heavy and keeps them on their toes!

SOPHOMORES

First row: Martha Sumonka, president; Royce Erickson, vice-president; Margaret Rourke, secretary; Connie Mackey, treasurer.
Second row: Mary Sherry, Loretta Flusche, Yvette Ryniker, Sally Van Antwerp, Patty Flusche.

As the caller chants her command, the girls of Mrs. Bradford's square dance class are quick to obey.

The "stylish" freshmen class bowed to the superior sophomores during the pledge day, September 20.

FRESHMEN

First row: Lorene Franks, president; Barbara Geary, vice-president, Jeanette Bennett, secreary; Martha Carney, treasurer.

Second row: Claire Sloan, Barbara Howell, Tonya Trimble, Jane Heldmar, Marilyn Titgen.

Third row: Suzanne Lynn, Metissa Essley, Alice Geary. Not in the picture Mary Jane Barry.

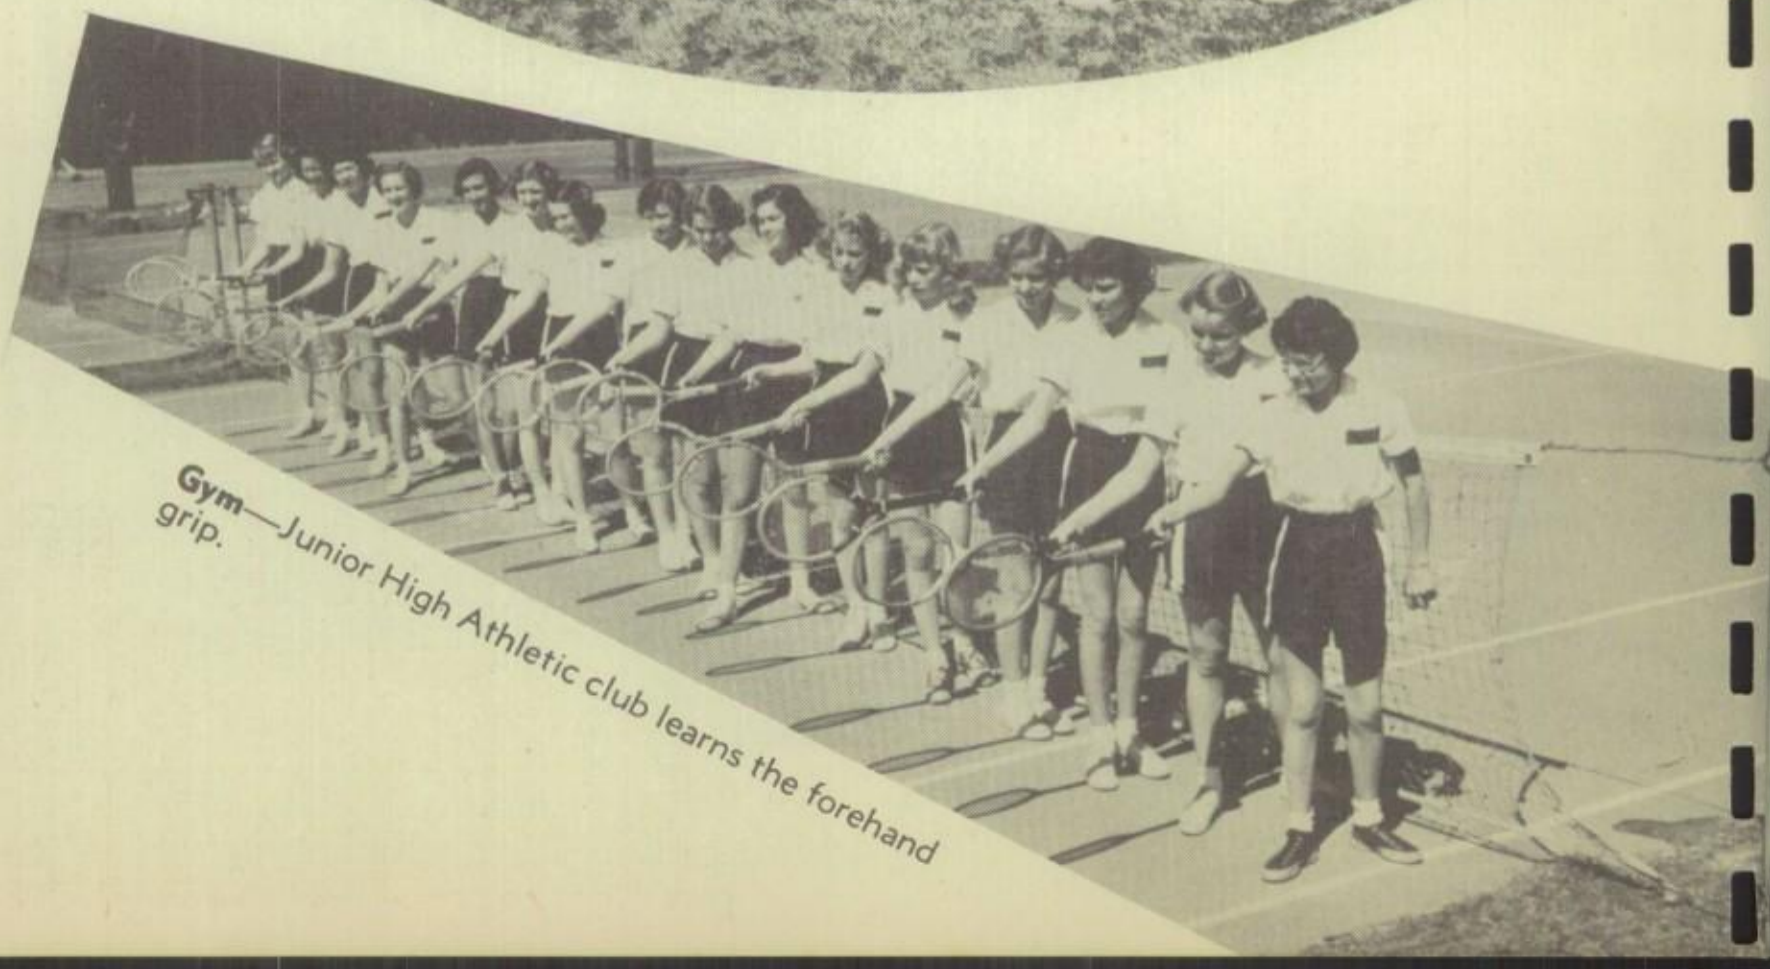

Our knowledge of Oklahoma History was greatly increased by a visit to Gilcrease Museum.

"Golden Slippers", one of the American couple dances learned in gym.

OFFICERS: Jean Melinder, Barbara Sellmeyer, Marilyn Fitzgerald, Terry McHenry. Absent: Hope Harder, Helen Jean Hardman, Suson Baden, David Grimes, Carol Reed.

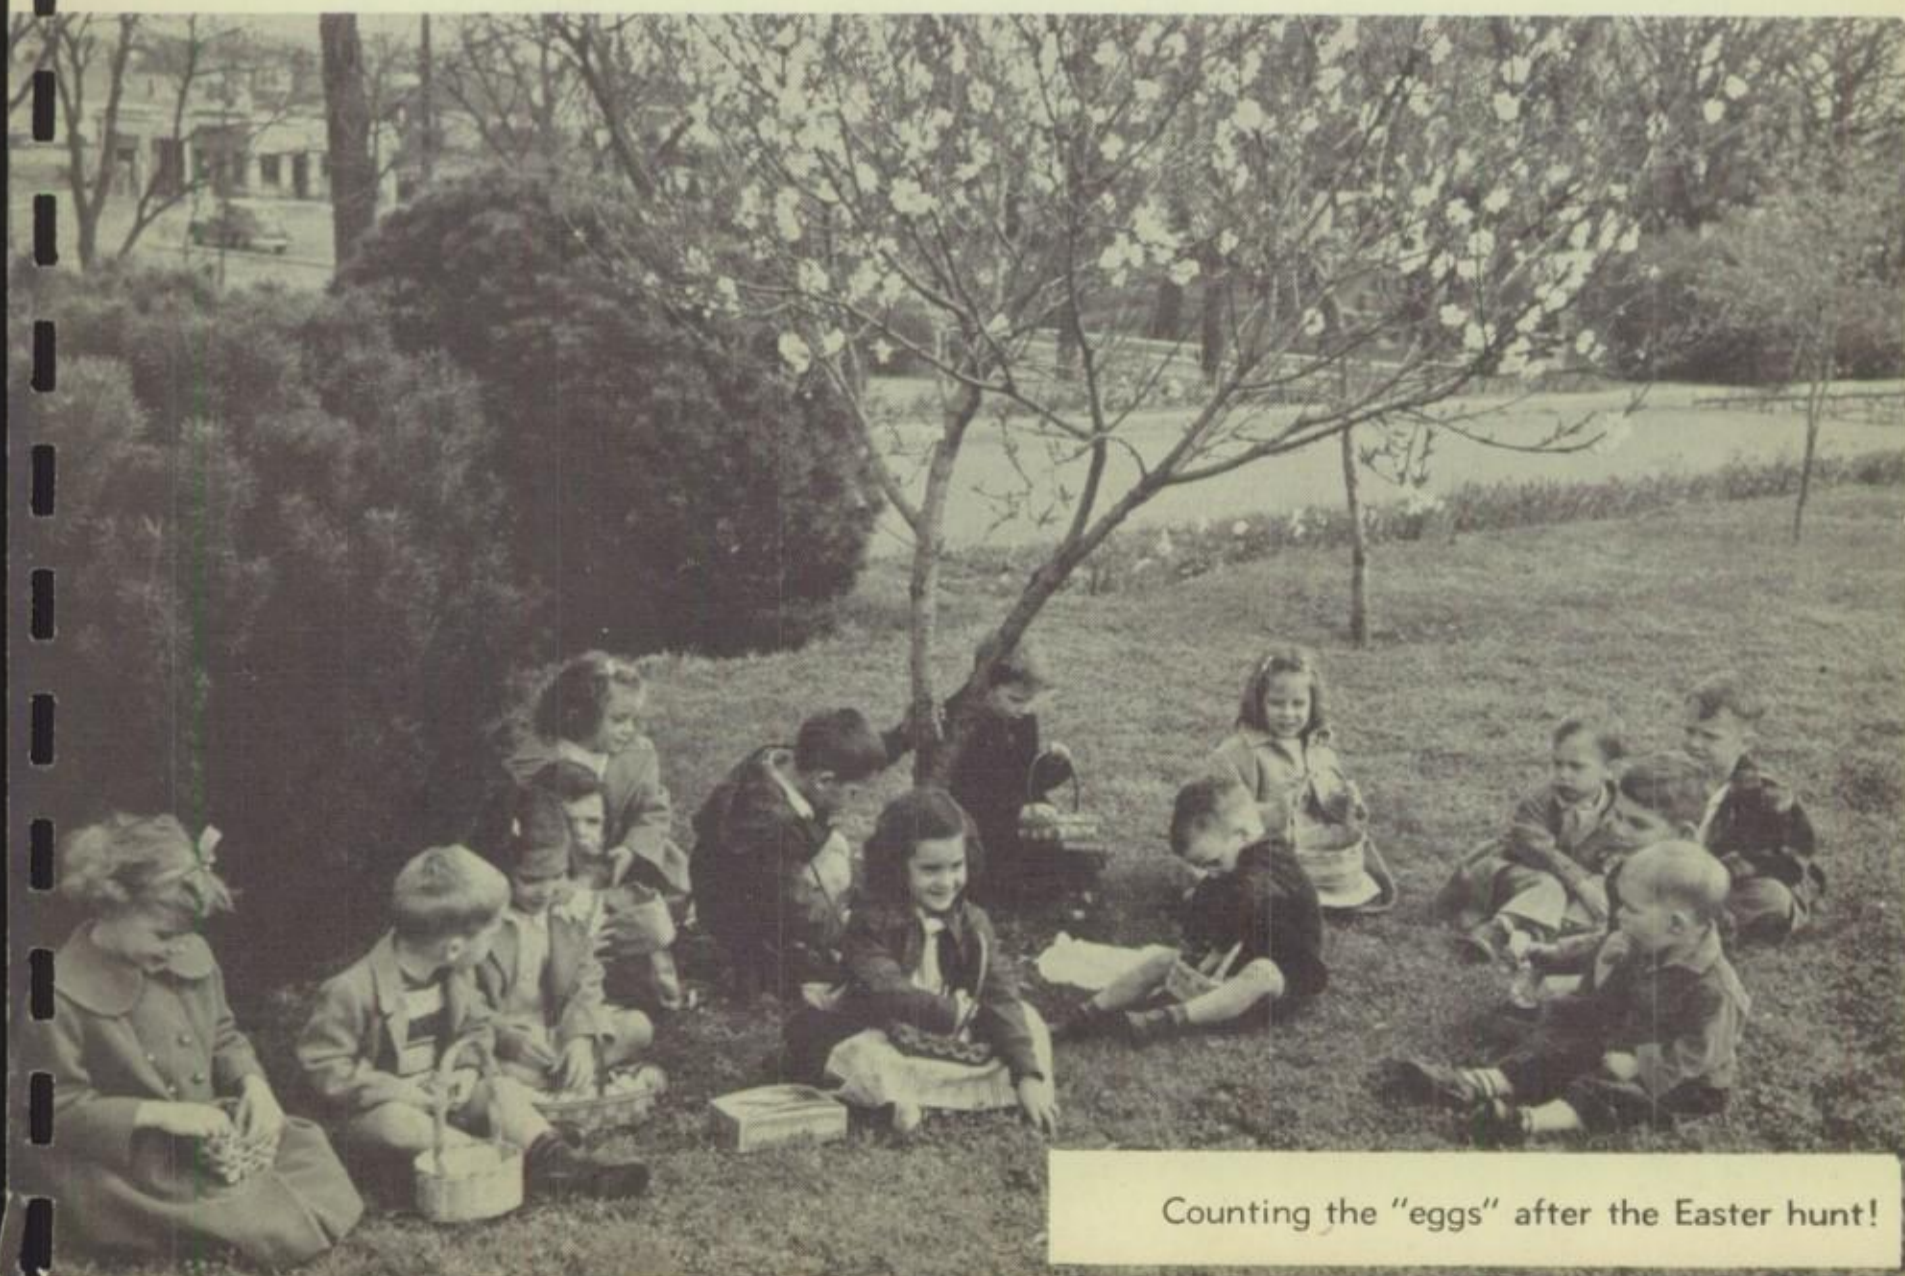

Spooks! Spooks! Wee Tots have fun at party!

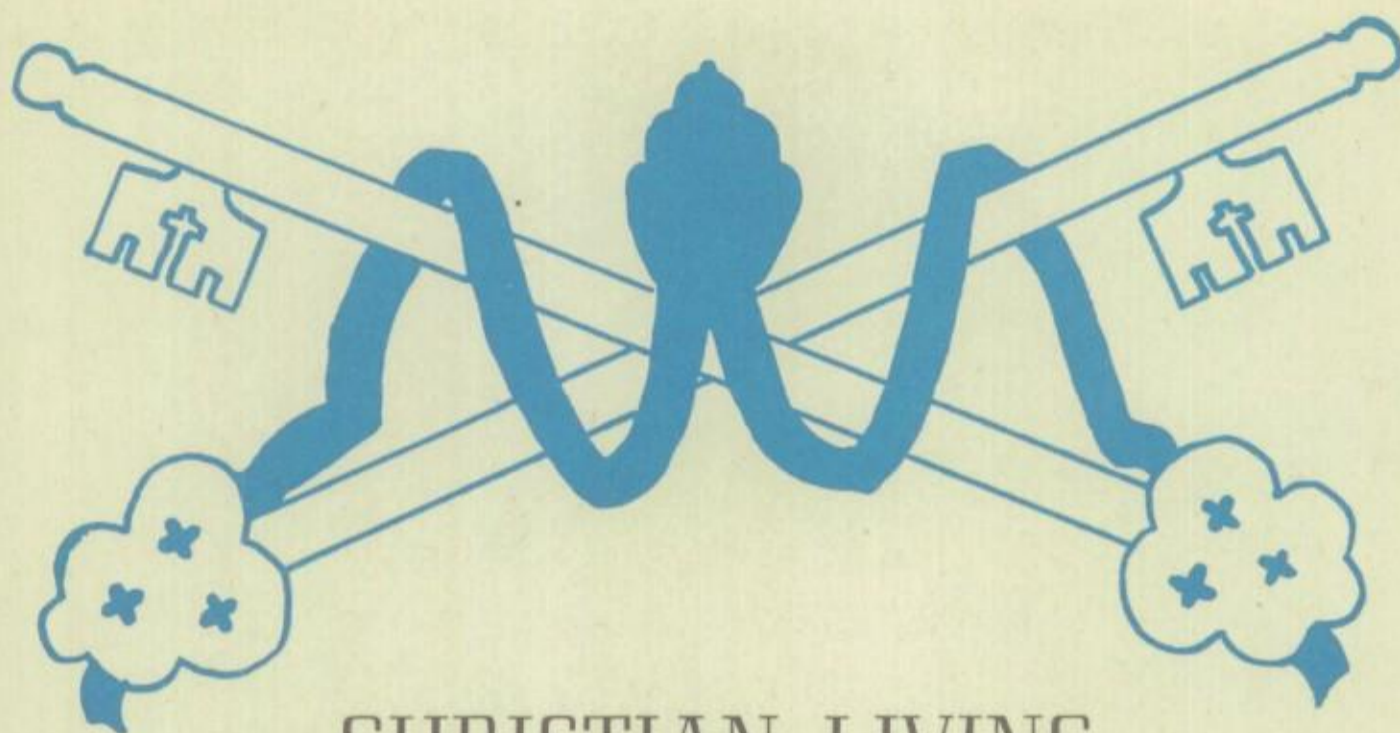

Around the piano for a song are Cherie Jo Perault, Joe Meyers, Bob Funk, and Sister Agatha. Working at the table are Jim Stanton, Billy Hersh, Aline Linehan, Martha Melinder, and Milly Eby.

To Market! To Market! Goes the Kindergarten.

Counting the "eggs" after the Easter hunt!

CHRISTIAN LIVING

Whether we work for knowledge or freedom, or purity or strength, or beauty or health, or ought else that contributes to Christian life, we work with God and for God. This is the Key to the plea of Pope Pius xii that the world become Christian.

Father Norbert Georges, O.P., editor of "The Torch" magazine and chairman of the Blessed Martin de Porres Guild, gives an illustrated lecture on Blessed Martin and the Churches of Peru.

Members of the Chant Class are leaving to sing the Mass at St. Patrick's Church in Sand Springs. The girls sing Mass at M.C. every Sunday and occasionally Vespers.

Audra Wisdom and Mildred Flusche prepare a table for Extreme Unction in demonstration for a religion class.

Four graduates of M.C. returned during the vacation to tell the student body of their work on the movement of "decent dress" in St. Louis. Margie Sherry addresses the assembly. Seated are Rita Grosshart, Barbara Moran, Janet Long, and Mary Richardson, a classmate from Maryville.

Rev. W. J. Swift —
Retreat Master

Laetare Sunday was a day to be remembered for Dianne Hudson and Barbara Benton for this day they made their First Holy Communion.

The senior high school set aside two days for a retreat conducted by Father Swift from Bristow. They gathered for conferences in the chapel as well as private conferences; Father Swift concentrated on the vocation of a student and the responsibilities of a Christian.

Monsignor Don Kanaly approves the Constitution drawn up at the first state-wide Y. C. S. Study Week, planned and conducted by student leaders: Don Brown, Bob Hayden, Janet Dannenburg, and Mildred Brandt.

M.C. delegates play a prominent part in the first Y. C. S. Study Week

YOUNG CHRISTIAN STUDENTS

Janet Dannenburg is leading a lively student discussion on "Sportsmanship" at a Y.C.S. General Assembly.

Y. C. S. Leaders' Groups hold weekly meetings to check up on action and study student problems. Sister Mary Alice and Sister Regina are moderators of these groups.

Seniors surpass juniors in sentence analysis contest. Grammar is a must for students because it is imperative for cultural living.

All eyes are on Barbara Boyles as she presents an oral account of "Jenny" by Rossetti to the seniors. Oral book reports are a part of the intensive English training in all Catholic schools.

"Children's Rights In American Democracy" was the theme of Catholic Education Week. These senior students carried out the theme in a panel discussion.

Sister Berchmans, the librarian, assembles reference books for the various classes to use in their studies. The well-equipped library is open throughout the day for interested and studious pupils of both the junior and senior high groups.

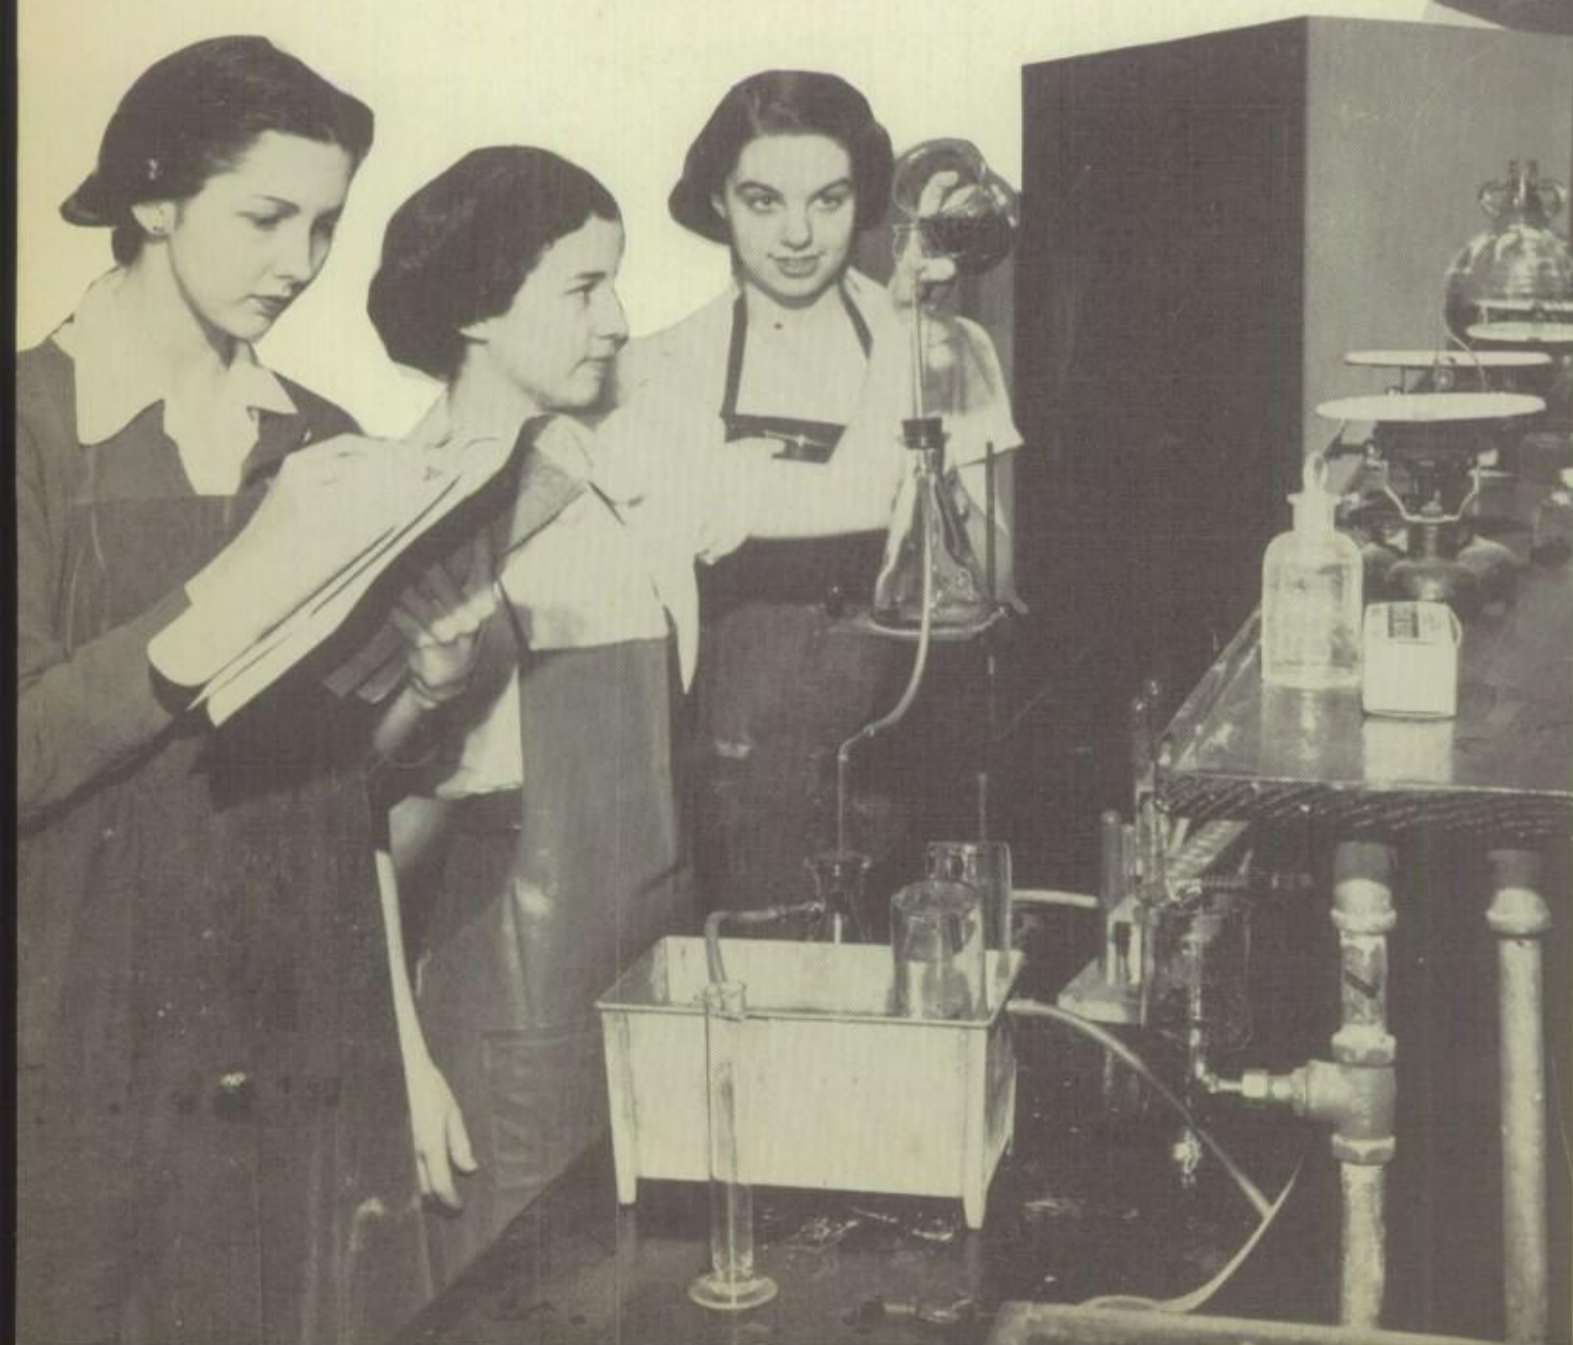

Julia Wendt, Betty Jo O'Connor, and Audra Wisdom learn to thread and operate the RKO Movie projector.

Miss Cullison

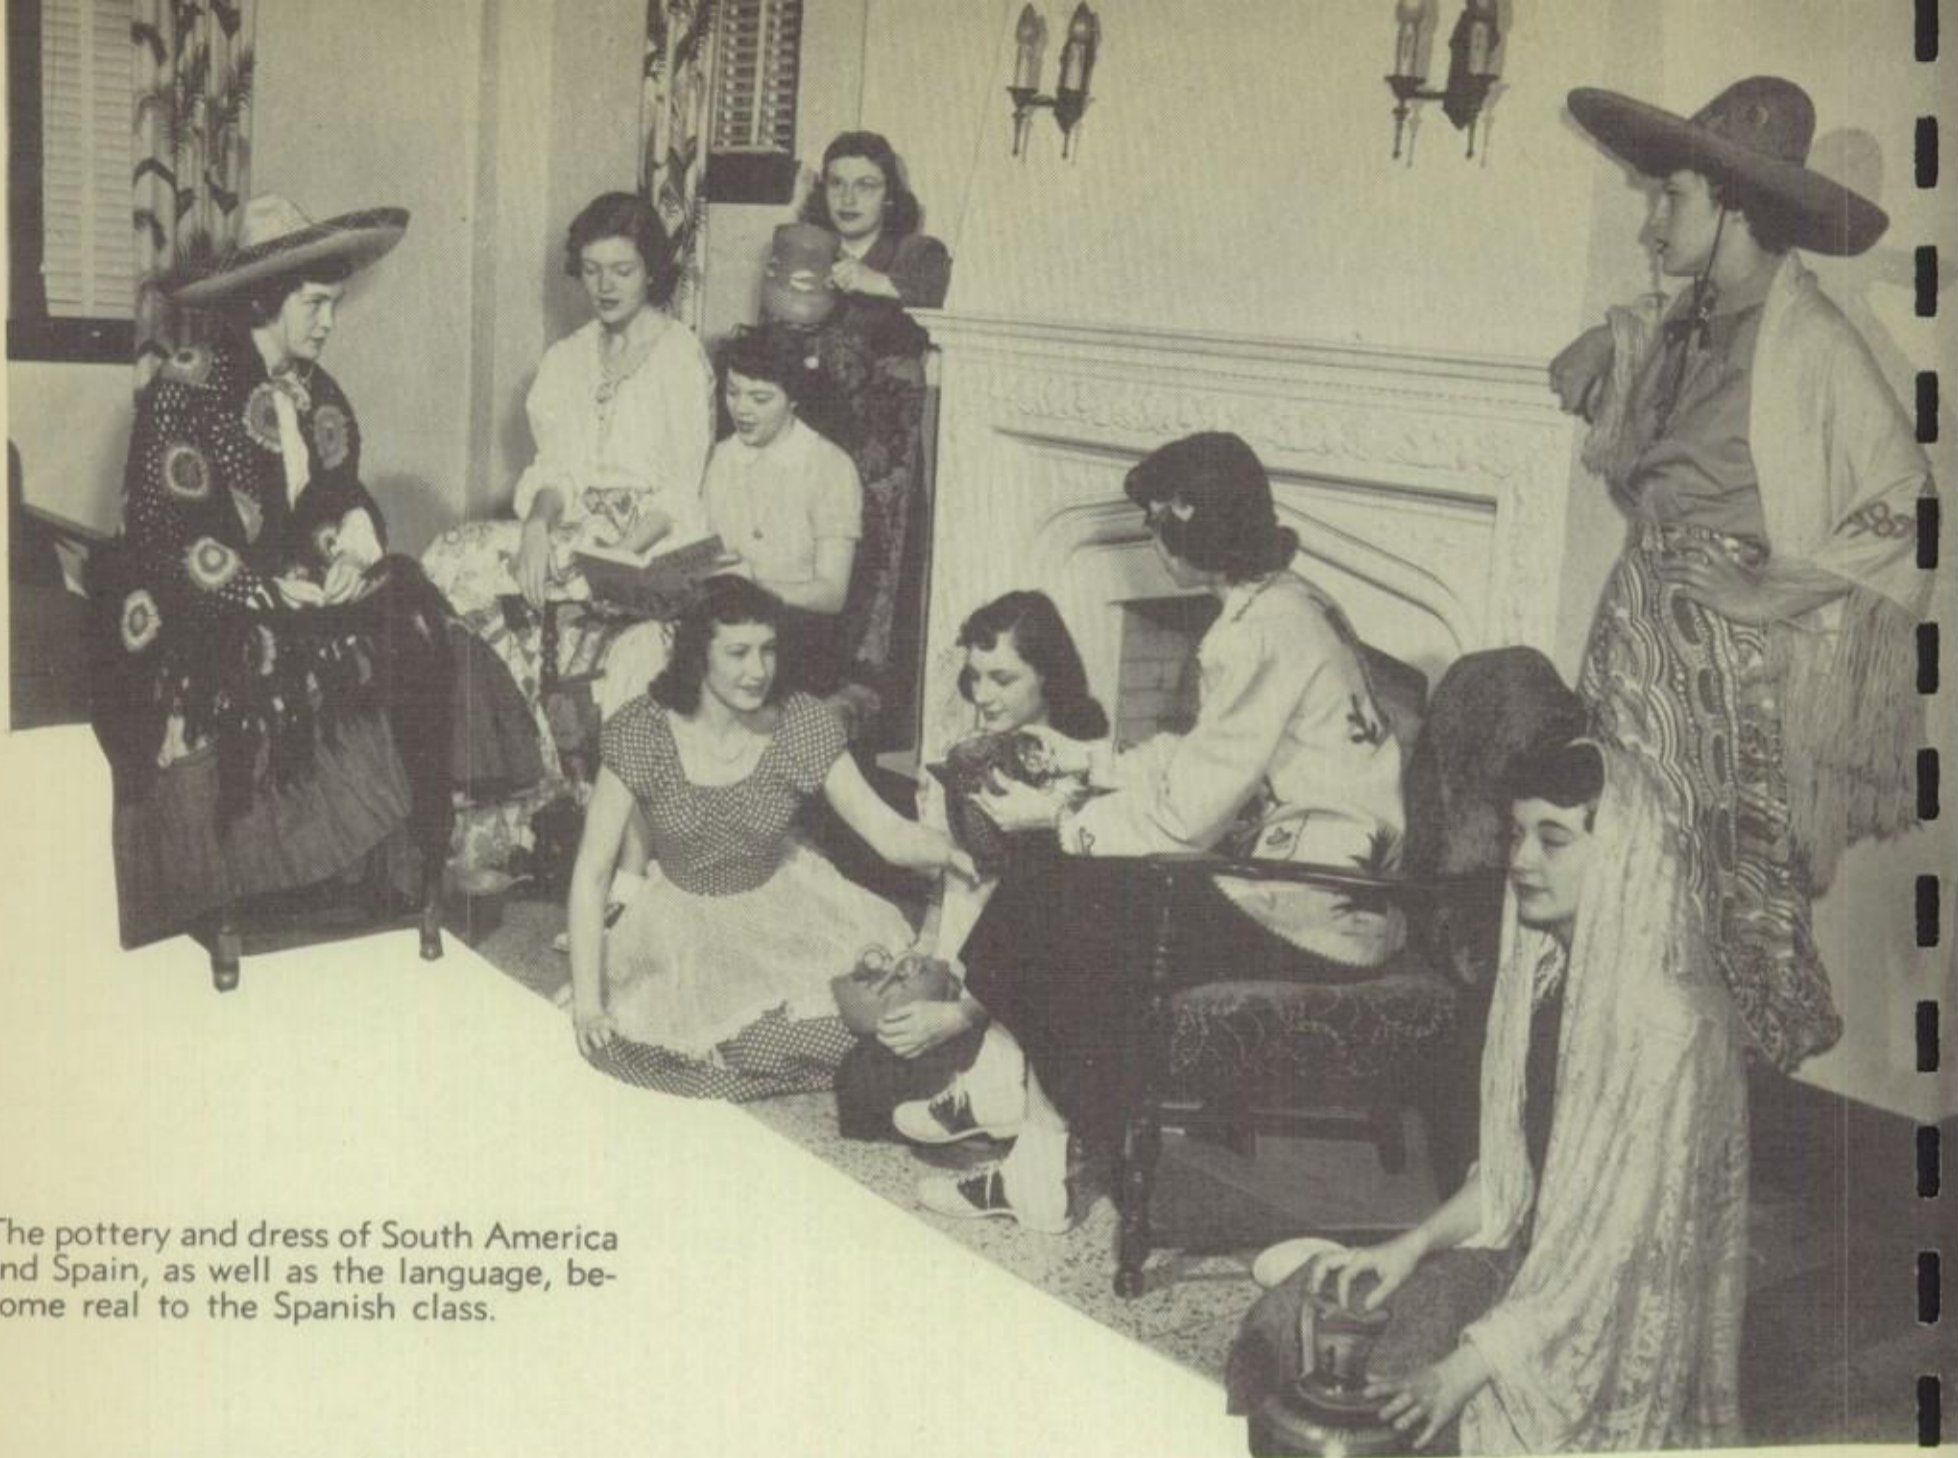

Chemistry students, Janet Dannenburg, Erin White, and Kathleen Clifford are absorbed in obtaining chlorine from the gas generator.

The Biology class goes to work in earnest on their crayfish. Dissectors Ruth Ann Murray and Patsy Jo Heim seem to know how and where to cut!

Busy cutting, pasting, and making layout for the yearbook are M. A. Brandt, Assistant editor, K. Mayer, Sports editor, C. Wilson, News editor, and P. Rutledge editor in chief.

The pottery and dress of South America and Spain, as well as the language, become real to the Spanish class.

Opening the Roman Banquet, Dido "crowns the wine". Aeneas looks on from his couch; Cupid is right there, too. "Togaed" guests took part in chariot races, dances, and songs.

Math students enjoy taking the measurements for the new green blackboards.

French classes take a vicarious trip to Rome via France.

Future Home makers learn to cook and sew tastily and economically. Doughnuts for the Parent Council Meeting and a tea for the senior class were a few of the many projects of the Home Economics Department.

Our motto: Looks good! Smells good! Tastes good!

Barbara Boyles and Barbara Limerick, captains of rival relay typing teams, type rapidly as their respective teams look on with interest. Note scores on the board.

Daily dictation makes for accuracy and speed in shorthand. The Gregg shorthand simplified — the new method—facilitates higher rates of speed and broader vocabulary.

Busy working on the drawings for the year book is the versatile art class. Seated, left to right are: Yvette Ryniker, Claire Swan, Patti Toler, Barbara Boyles, and Patsy Rutledge.

The art class proved its skill when it painted a colorful woodland scene for the stage in preparation for the grade school operetta.

Winner of a first place position in Oklahoma's art contest is Patsy Rutledge. Her drawing of a Beech Tree was judged the best in its division and was entered in the national contest.

Three talented members of the art class put finishing touches on drawings they plan to enter in the state contest.

Mary Anne Brandt, promising soloist, is accompanied by Barbara Geary.

Expressions varying from polite interest to melancholy cover the faces of pianists Janet Jung, Barbara Limerick, Joan Francis, Mary Anne Brandt, Dianne Hudson, and Patsy Heim as they listen to an obviously unrehearsed duet by Audra Wisdom and Margaret Avery.

Young artists, the two Gearys and Claire Sloan, look over the score with Sister Regina, piano teacher.

Mrs. Robert Boice Carson, an artist herself, instills an appreciation for culture in her students as well as the ability to create art. Patsy Jo Heim, Joan Francis, Sally Van Antwerp and Mary Anne try out a new score.

From the top left: C. Sloan, J. Bartholomew, J. Hardman, M. Carney, B. J. O'Conner, R. Murray, J. Jung, M. Marsh, J. Hardman, L. Franks, J. McLendon, M. Sumonka, K. Mayer, M. Avery, D. Hudson, C. Swan, M. Titgen, P. McKeown, M. E. McEvoy, B. Howell, J. Francis, L. Flusche, B. Benton, C. Wilson, P. Rutledge, S. Lynn.

GLEE

The Monte Cassino Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Robert Boice Carson has received state wide recognition for its excellent quality and technique.

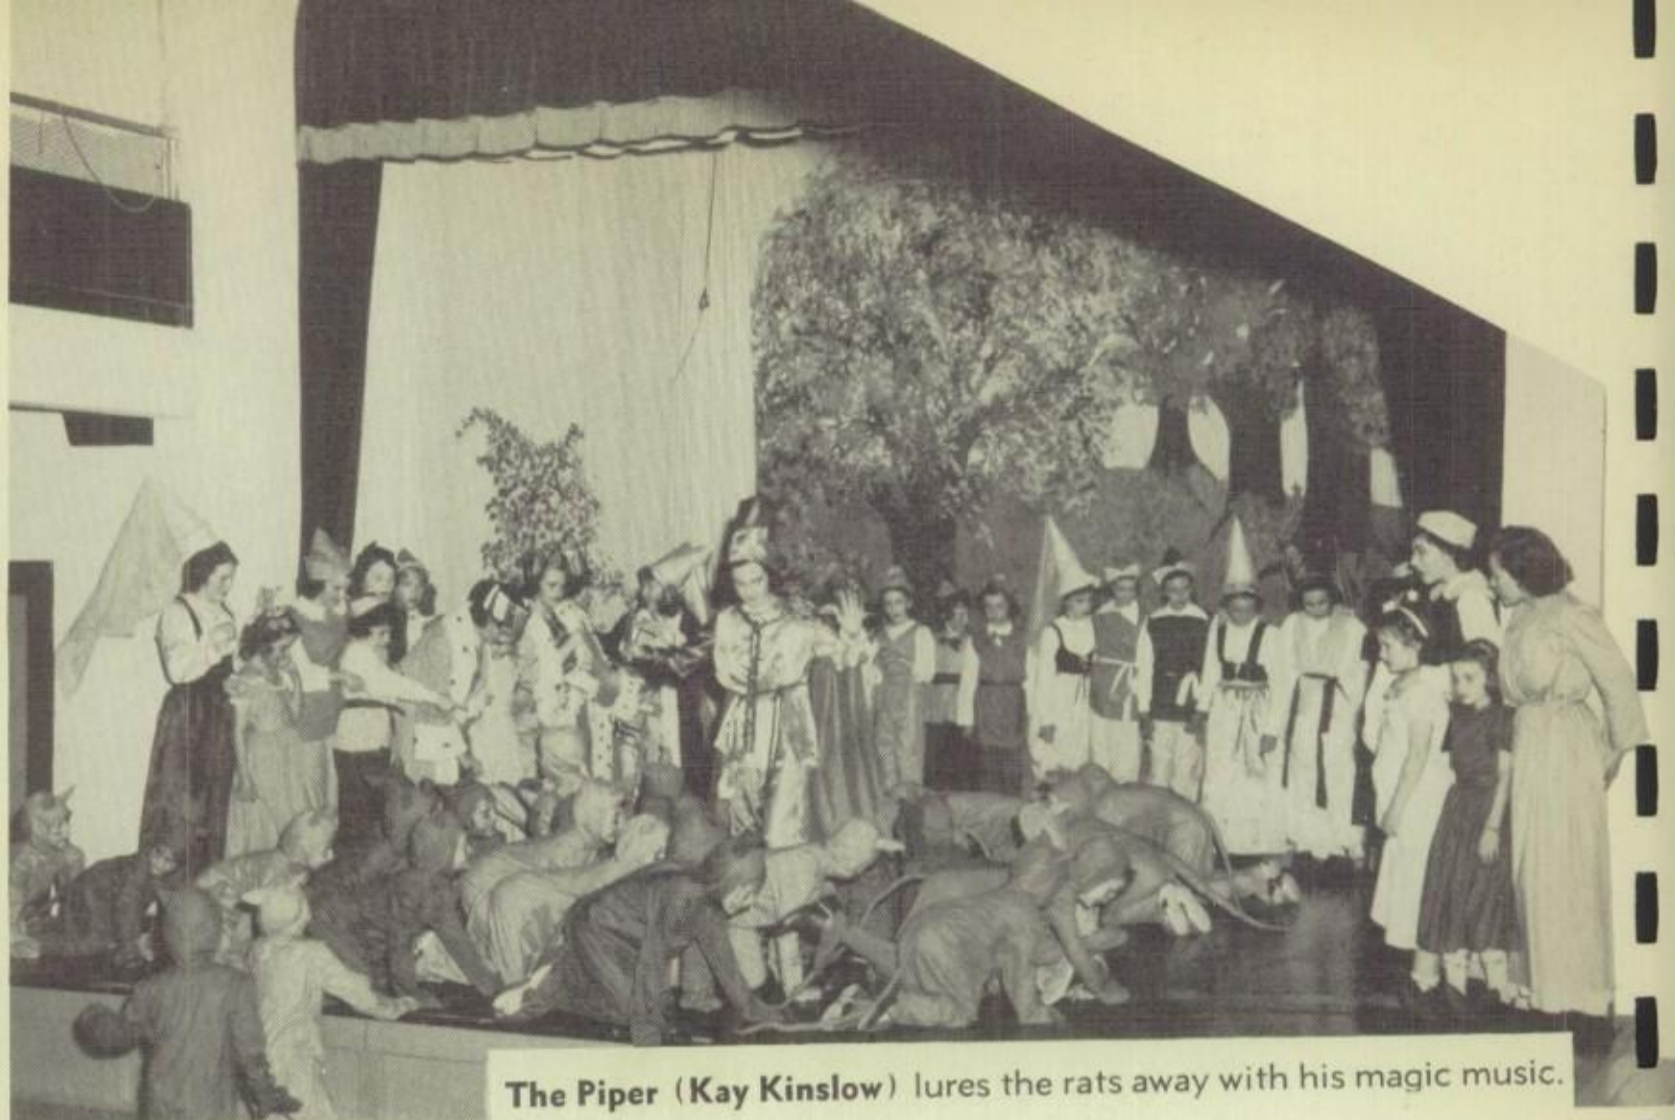

CLUB

Public performances were given for the Christ the King Crozier Banquet, the Monte Cassino Style Show, television and the Spring Festival.

From the top left: P. Heim, M. A. Brandt, M. Flusche, B. Boyles, M. Rourke, M. Essley, K. Clifford, B. Geary, T. Trimble, P. Flusche, R. Erickson, A. Geary, M. J. Barry, E. White, C. Mackey, M. Sherry, E. Eck, S. Van Antwerp, G. Griffith, B. Limerick, N. Gaines, J. Wendt, J. Shields, Y. Ryniker.

THE MAGIC PIPER

The Piper (Kay Kinslow) lures the rats away with his magic music.

The children (Intermediate grades) gaily sing and dance.

Everyone in Hamelin loves Katrina (Pat Davidson) from Hanover City.

Mrs. Robert Boice Carson (Director) and Marie Sumonka (Accompanist) swing into action.

The grades presented a jolly op-eretta taken from Browning's "Pied Piper".

Town Crier (Kathleen Hudson) informs the people of Hamelin of all important events.

The Rats (Primary Grades). They stole the show!

GRADESCHOOL

CAREERS

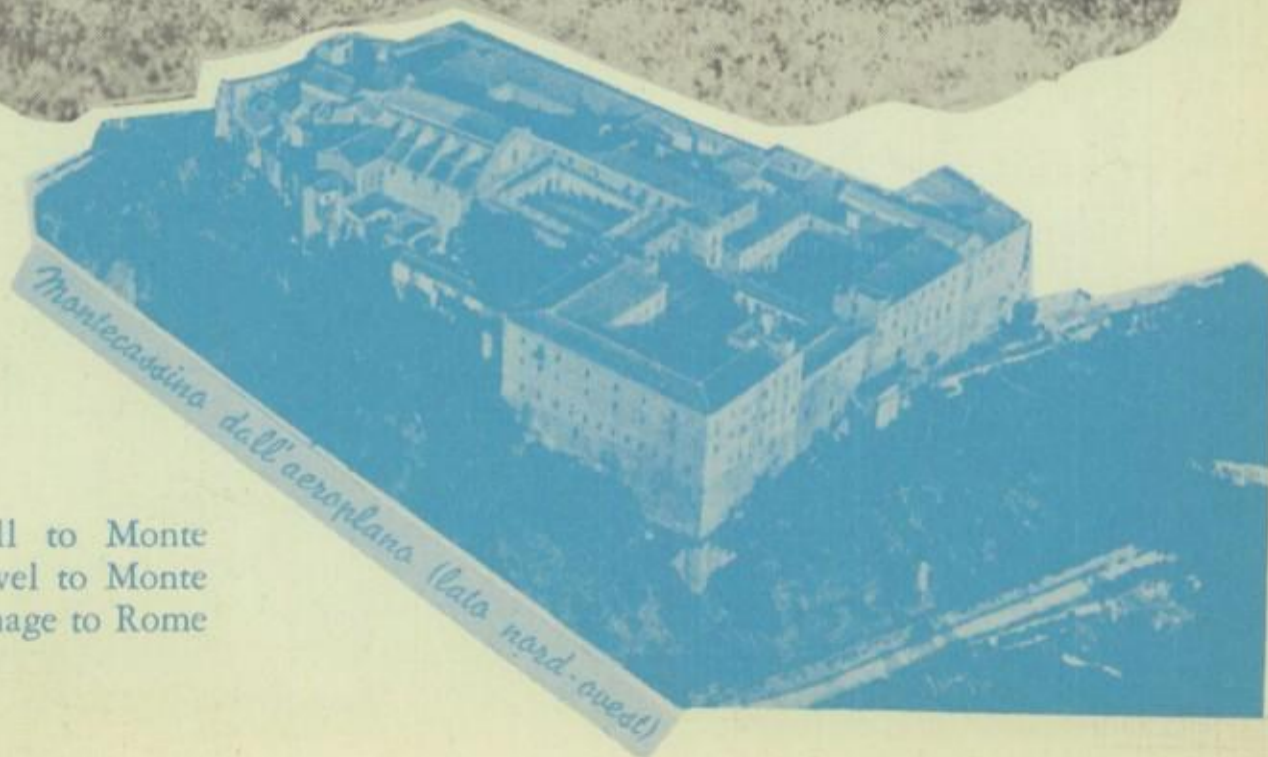

"Brief Music," a sentimental comedy of character, was the dramatic production of the year. Senior and junior girls gave realistic character studies of modern college girls and their problems. Frances Lux, a former pupil, directed the play.

Spiff, Joellen McLendon, states that "if the public is going to use her room, the public can help decorate it."

Some enjoy the usual quiet college girl's evening; some abhor it!

Gretchen, will bid farewell to Monte Cassino, Tulsa, and will travel to Monte Cassino, Italy, on her pilgrimage to Rome for the Holy Year Jubilee.

Queen Nancy Gaines and King Charles Hoffman; the flower girl Janice Johnson; page Mike Stolba; the attendants and their escorts, Martha Sumonka and David Carpenter, Evelyn Eck and Bob Kropp, Joan Hardman and Frank Leos, Dianne Hudson and Dick Brewster, and Alice Geary with Bobby Brinlle.

Wide, delighted smiles greeted Queen Nancy Gaines as six happy senior girls congratulate her highness.

Queen Nancy and King Charles began the dance with a charming waltz.

Flower girl, Janice Johnson and page Mike Stolba, had smiles a plenty for Nancy after her successful campaign.

Laughter and merriment prevailed at the annual Mardi-Gras.

SODALITY QUEEN

Lovely Erin White, a scholar and a leader in the Youth movement, received the honor of Crowning the Blessed Virgin Mary. Kathleen Clifford was senior attendant to the queen.

MAY QUEEN

"Sweet" Jayne Shields was elected May Queen by popular vote. She was crowned by Joellen McLendon, senior attendant, and presided over the May festivities.

Annually the faculty entertains the high school girls and their dads on the Feast of St. Benedict.

Rt. Rev. Monsignor D. C. Fletcher, Toastmaster, delighted the guests with a brief history of Monte Cassino Monastery founded by St. Benedict in the fifth century.
